

European Voluntary Service placement

Hosting Organisation : Cinambule Association

Location : Cabrières d'Avignon ; village with 1500 inhabitants in the Vaucluse (Provence-Alpes-Côtes d'Azur région)

Duration of the activities: 11 months

Start of the project: February 2018

Coordination Organisation: Eurocircle, Marseille

Context of the organization:

The Cinambule Association is a non-profit organization of cinephile volunteers created in 1981 and located in the village of Cabrières d'Avignon. The organization is based in a rural and quite remote place, far from the cinemas and from the cultural programs which can exist in big cities. Nevertheless, the area is quite active during the summer in the cultural field. Cinambule organizes a series of events throughout the year, mainly focusing on short films.

The main objective of the organization is to give access to the largest part of the population to cinema and culture, through not formal educational practices.

Public:

The local population of the area: of all ages (adults, youths, seniors...). Some actions are organized especially for youths such as interventions in schools about education through cinema and pictures.

Volunteer's activities:

- To be involved in project steering, for the short-film Festival "Court, c'est court!" (organization of the project, help to create new partnerships between France and Sweden...)
- To animate workshops in schools with children twice a week about discovery of cinema
- To work as a team with a French volunteer
- To help with the preparation of the film projections during summer (outdoor theater)
- To help with the general communication of the organization, and the communication about the punctual events

Accommodation: The volunteer will stay in a hosting family, close to the organization.

Language support: the volunteer will have access to OLS (online linguistic support).

Allowance: The volunteer will receive monthly 150€ of pocket money and compensation for food (weekends and holidays), and 210€ of compensation for food (weeks). An insurance will also be provided during the project. The international transport to France is financed with 180 € or 275 € depending on the living country of the volunteer.

Profile of the coming volunteer:

- To be motivated and involved in the associative project of Cinambule.
- To be interested in cinema and short films.
